(Short Answer Questions)

This Section contains three questions, attempt any two questions. Each question carries 10 marks.
Short answer is required. 10×2=20

6. Write a character sketch of Ruth Honeywill.

7. Explain the following with reference to context :

Now look here Falder. My son and I want to give you another chance; but there are two things I must say to you. In the first place : It's no good coming here as a victim. If you've any notion that you've been unjustly treated get rid of it. You can not play fast and loose with morality and hope to go scot-free. If society didn't take care of itself, no body would the sooner you realize that the better. http://www.ccsustudy.com

Section-C

(Detailed Answer Questions)

This Section contains five questions, attempt any three questions. Each question carries 20 marks. Answer is required in detail.  $20 \times 3 = 60$

Write a note on John Galsworthy as a dramatist.

- b. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions, given below :

When ever there is difficulty the man who has to meet it must come out for better or worse. Encounter with it will train his strength and discipline his skill. The road to success may be steep to climb, but it puts to proof the energies of him who would reach the summit. By experience a man soon learns how obstacles are to overcome by grappling with them. Thus, difficulties often fall away of themselves before the determination to overcome them. In nine cases out of ten, if they are marched boldly upon, they will flee away. Like thieves they often disappear at a glance. What looked like impossible obstacle like some great mountain chain in our way, is found to become practicable when approached, and paths formerly uneven, though they may be narrow and difficult, open a way for us through the hills.

Answer briefly the following questions : 4 each

- How can we realize our actual strength?
- How can we overcome difficulties?
- What is the surest way of getting success in life?
- Supply a suitable title heading to the passage
- Summarize the views of author in the above passage.

1. Discuss the central idea of the play 'Justice'.

2. Translate the following passage in Hindi :

Science is, indeed, a great blessing to mankind.

Science has revolutionized human life and introduced so many comforts into the world that life has become really worth living. If a man of 17th or 18th century could pay a visit to our scientific world, he would think himself to be in a fairyland where everything is done by magic.

Consider, for instance, what electricity does for us. We have just to press a button and the room is flooded with light, or a fan begins to revolve and give us a current of cool refreshing air or a heater begins to radiate warmth. Electricity boils water and freezes ice for us. It is the driving power behind thousands of machines. Its miracles

13. Translate the following passage in English :

हस्तिनापुर का राजा शान्तनु एक बुद्धिमान, बहादुर व आकर्षक पुरुष था । वह शिकार खेलने का बड़ा शौकीन था । एक दिन वह गंगा नदी के किनारे से गुजर रहा था । उसने एक अद्वितीय युवती को देखा जो चमकीले आभूषण और कमल सी मुलायम पोशाक में थी । वह जनु की पुत्री गंगा थी । शान्तनु ने उससे शादी करने की इच्छा व्यक्त की । गंगा ने इस प्रस्ताव को इस शर्त पर स्वीकार कर लिया कि राजा उसे कभी अप्रिय शब्द नहीं कहेगा और न ही उसके कार्यों में हस्तक्षेप करेगा । शान्तनु ने उसकी शर्त स्वीकार कर ली और उनका विवाह हो गया ।
